Dear Ed:

I can't help but to think of all the advanced work you did in preparing your quality presentation on "Partnering". You did an outstanding job as a professional speaker, but what was even more apparent was the work you had done ahead of time in making sure the presentation was customized, directed, and focused. Everybody appreciated that!

You know, when I wear my other hat, I too am a professional speaker. As one pro to another, it was a pleasure to watch you work at our convention. Please feel free to use me for reference at any time in the future and know that, whenever possible, I will recommend you as a quality presenter in a subject of vital interest to business people everywhere. Many thanks.

Yours for greater success,

Ron Davis
