Dear Ed:

With a "winning" combination of excellent speakers, unique events and our location in exciting Nashville, Music City USA, our 1997 Annual Conference was a memorable experience for everyone!

Your presentation entitled "Partnering for Profits" was a perfect topic for our Conference with its emphasis on helping our Dealers understand better ways to strengthen their relationship with their customers.

Thank you for making our Conference such a success with your timely presentation.

Yours truly,

O.K. TIRE STORES INC.
