Dear Ed:

Thanks for all your help in making our 1998 Management Symposium such a success. I personally appreciated the fact that you spent some valuable time in calling some of the attendees before the meeting. This customizing of your presentation was very important to the group.

I'm beginning to use some of your partnering ideas in the association as a way of increasing our programs and services. I'll let you know how it works out.

Look forward to having you back in 2 years.

Sincerely yours,

William C. Gager
