Re: NACM 2008 Annual Conference

Dear Ed:

On behalf of the National Association for Court Management, I thank you for your timely and informative presentation at NACM's 2008 Annual Conference held at the Marriott Hotel, Anaheim, California. We sincerely appreciate the time and energy you dedicated to the educational program.

The conference program was a great success, based on the feedback NACM received on the program evaluations and comments directed to the NACM Board. A summary of the evaluations from your session is being e-mailed to you.

Thank you again for your contribution to the conference and NACM's continuing commitment to professional development of court managers.

Sincerely,

Marcus W. Reinkensmeyer
NACM President
